RCAN 2024-25 TEC LAUNCH - March 26th at Din Din's contribution of the venue space and the drink on arrival.

What's happening this month at

Club of Albury North

To the 70+ folk who attended our recent launch of the 2024-25 TEC at Din Din's restaurant ...THANK YOU for supporting the event and we hope you had a great night. A HUGE thanks also goes out to

There was plenty of time to socialise, enjoy the food and buy tickets. Our beneficiaries spoke briefly about where we will be directing funding in this coming campaign and BLMC director,

Mark and Deb Davis and all the staff especially Tamara, from Din Din's for their generous briefly about where we will be directing funding in this coming campaign and BLMC director, Bjelkie Lansdown gave everyone an update on the mental health first aid and resilience training we have funded. Renee and Sarah from Hello World gave us some insight into what a $4,000 travel voucher could be spent on should you win! A few of our past major winners shared their travel experience and some of our businesses who supply the vouchers attended. in particular we'd like to thank Steve Church from "The Great Outdoors" who not only supplies a voucher but provided a baby Q Weber as a prize for ticket holders who had purchased their tickets by 7.30pm on the night of the launch.

The food was fabulous and the venue had a great atmosphere. We were sorry Alice and Ryan from "Schnelle Partners" (our major Sponsors) had to put in an apology at the last minute due to illness, but thanks to their staff members who joined us. We were also sorry Kristy from Country Hope didn't make it back in town in time due to a prior commitment.

Last weekend saw a few of our Rotarians volunteer their time to support "Colour Frenzy" at Willow Park Wodonga. See the photo below. This is a FUN and interactive walk/run/jog fundraiser supporting animal rescues and aims to raise $5,000 at each of the events held around Australia.

CLUB SPEAKER Update...

the Albury Wodonga Volunteer Resource Bureau, Renee Wilson. With over 160 volunteer organisations under the AWVRB umbrella, this organisation recruits volunteers and refers them to community organisations. They match volunteers to their particular interests, skills, passion, and values to ensure a positive volunteering experience. This might include events, multi cultural services, social enterprise initiatives and much more. They can be contacted at:

One of our guest speakers this month was CEO of

Albury Wodonga Volunteer Resource Centre

Have you ever thought about becoming a Rotarian? Would you like to find out more about how to get involved as a member? We are a diverse group of people who all have a common interest in serving the community whilst having fun. Send us your contact details HERE. We'd love to meet you!
